

Corrections Outbreak Checklist

For AHS Workplace Health and Safety Nurse

This checklist outlines the roles and responsibilities for AHS Workplace Health and Safety Nurse when an outbreak is declared in a corrections facility. These actions help protect everyone at the facility and ensure a coordinated response to the outbreak. For more Information, refer to Guide for Outbreak Prevention and Control in Provincial Correctional Facilities.

Task/Responsibility	Timeline/ Frequency
☐ Review and maintain familiarity with Guide for Outbreak Prevention and Control in Provincial Correctional Facilities .	Ongoing
☐ Review and updates internal protocols for management of AHS staff during an outbreak as necessary.	Ongoing
☐ Support illness assessment and surveillance of AHS staff working in the outbreak centre.	Ongoing
☐ Coordinate with IPC to determine risk of exposure for AHS staff to positive residents (if indicated).	Ongoing
☐ Maintain documentation on AHS staff health and vaccine status and provide information on individual indicators as appropriate to identify AHS staff risk of exposure and infection (if indicated).	Ongoing
☐ Participate in the Outbreak Management Team (if activated) to advise on workplace health and safety issues affecting AHS staff.	As required
☐ Provide follow up and return to work guidance for exposed, symptomatic and/or positive AHS staff.	As required
☐ Participate in the centre post-outbreak debriefing to address outbreak management issues, provide recommendations, and revise internal protocols where necessary for improvement.	Post-outbreak